

Whidbey Island Waldorf School

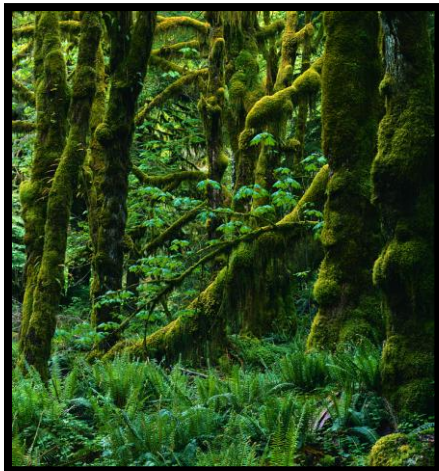

2010-2011

OPEN POSITION: FIRST GRADE TEACHER

Enjoy island life in the maritime Pacific Northwest!

Found in 1985, Whidbey Island Waldorf School is located on Whidbey Island in beautiful Puget Sound and lies within the rain shadow of the Olympic Mountains. Our unique island location offers a calm atmosphere with beaches, trails and easy access to several national forests. South Whidbey has a rich and diverse arts community and is only one hour from the cultural life and opportunities of the downtown Seattle area. We are fortunate to own a beautiful building set on 100 acres of ecological trust forestlands where our classes often walk and study.

We are seeking a Waldorf teacher to begin and lead the grades journey with a lovely class of children and parents beginning in September of 2010. Candidates must have a four year college degree and Waldorf Elementary Certification. For the 2010-2011 school year, we anticipate an enrollment of approximately 110 in Nursery through 8th Grade. Our curriculum includes Strings, Choir, and Spanish. Our experienced faculty share the teaching in games, handwork, skills, fine arts, and manual arts.

We offer a competitive salary range with a compensation plan that includes incremental increases for experience, training, and longevity in your position. This full time position also receives personal health benefits and includes full tuition remission for your children in the school.
